

Carpets in Dubai

Home Carpets

Types of Carpets:

Dubai offers a diverse range of carpets, including traditional handwoven carpets, machine-made carpets, Persian carpets, Turkish carpets, and modern designs. The choice depends on your preferences and budget.

Souks and Markets:

The traditional markets or souks in Dubai, such as the Textile Souk in Bur Dubai or the Carpet Souk in Deira, are excellent places to explore and purchase carpets. You can find a wide selection of handmade and machine-made carpets here.

Quality and Craftsmanship:

Dubai is renowned for its high-quality carpets, especially those imported from countries like Iran, India, Pakistan, and Afghanistan. Handwoven carpets are often considered more valuable due to the time and skill required to create them.

Prices:

The prices of carpets in Dubai can vary widely, depending on factors like size, design, material, and craftsmanship. It's essential to have a budget in mind and do some research before making a purchase.

Bargaining:

Bargaining is a common practice when buying carpets in Dubai's markets. Sellers often expect customers to negotiate the price, so don't hesitate to haggle for a better deal.